

bdoor

Brand identity guidelines

A modern Bangladesh business platform with a culturally confident colour system.

Your door to business in Bangladesh.

Version 1.0 | August 2026

02 Brand foundation

What bdoor should communicate before a customer reads the details.

One clear promise

bdoor makes starting and operating a business in Bangladesh feel understandable, trackable and professionally supported.

Clear

Plain-language guidance, transparent fee categories and visible next actions.

Capable

A serious operating system for formation, licences, documents and compliance.

Local

Built for Bangladesh, expressed through a disciplined rickshaw-inspired palette.

Positioning

A Bangladesh Company OS - not a government portal, law firm or general services marketplace.

Logo system

Use the supplied files. Never rebuild the wordmark by typing it.

Primary colour logo

Reversed on Midnight

Monochrome

Symbol only

For favicons, app icons, compact avatars and places where the full wordmark will not fit.

Clear space and minimum size

Give the logo enough room to remain confident and readable.

Clear space = width of the red upper panel

Bangla copy must be professionally reviewed

Use natural Bangla phrasing and preserve the meaning of legal and compliance disclosures.

Logo note

The supplied wordmark is outlined artwork. Never recreate it by typing the name.

Digital expression

Interfaces should feel calm and international, with colour reserved for meaning.

Interface ratio

- 70% White and Cloud surfaces
- 20% Midnight typography
- 10% Brand and status colour

Buttons

Cobalt for the primary action. Midnight for secondary actions. Vermilion only for destructive or urgent states.

Cultural expression

Bangladesh should be felt through confident colour and craft, not visual stereotypes.

Use

- Geometric rickshaw-inspired colour blocking
- Close details of real entrepreneurship
- Modern Bangladesh city and industry scenes
- Natural, documentary-style photography
- Simple motifs used as supporting patterns

Avoid

- Using a full rickshaw illustration as the primary logo
- Crowding every surface with flowers or patterns
- Government seals, flags or official-looking emblems
- Generic handshakes, gavels or courthouse imagery
- Neon gradients and decorative effects

09 Voice and messaging

Friendly, direct and transparent - never casual about compliance.

Primary line

Your door to business in Bangladesh.

Say

Estimated processing time after complete documents and successful review.

Do not say

Guaranteed approval, government authorised, instant visa or fixed government completion date.

Voice principles

Clear over clever | Specific over vague | Calm over urgent | Helpful over legalistic

Always separate bdoor fees, government fees, partner fees and third-party costs.

Handoff and launch checklist

The identity is ready for production once ownership and clearance are confirmed.
